Col. Fellows was not in his office this forenoon when an "Evening World" reporter called, but Assistant District-Attorney Lindsay said that he believed that there was good ground for the rumor.

"I have not spoken to Col. Fellows about the matter as yet," he said, "but I know that he has for some time been complaining very bitterly about this alleged neglect."

The Penal Code, section 778, provides that the Coroners shall forthwith transmit to the District-Attorney's office transcripts of all proceedings in cases of homicide.

Failure to comply with this requirement renders the Coroners liable to punishment.

Mr. Strasser, when seen by a reporter, and that he common councils of all in it a clause allowing minority representation in the common councils of all cities over 250,000 in population, was taken up.

Mr. Holcomb (Demacrat), of New York, was the first speaker, and said that the proposition for minority representation was simply to provide a buffer between the will of the people, the majority and the minority, so as to keep some of the minority, so as to keep some of the minority, so as to keep some of the minority, and what harm could these people mot do if they wished to show light in a body and assimilate with another small body of maicontents. He argued that they might turn to be a majority, and so overturn the wishes of the people themselves.

New Distillery to Be Started.

(By Associated Press.) has been aroused in distilling circles by the filling of incorporation papers in Springfield for the new Atlas Distillery, of this city, whose buildings are now practically completed. The distillery will be the largest in the world, and will be run outside of the Trust. The Company is headed by Agamuel Woolner. The new house has a capacity of $,900 bushels of grain per day, and will be run at such capacity as the trade warrants. tax on spirits in bond on the ground of illegal duty.
